By CAR

At roundabout take the exit onto the A374 Embankment Rd (sign posted Plymouth)

Follow the A374 Embankment Rd, for approximately 1.7miles, stay in left hand lane where it bears off left along A374 Gdynia Way.

In Gdynia Way, get into the left hand lane and follow the road straight through the traffic lights on to Barbican Approach.

On Barbican Approach, follow for approximately 0.18 miles to another set of traffic lights

Continue straight across traffic lights on to Lockyers Quay

There is a public multi storey car on the left opposite the Lockyers Quay pub (on the right).

This is the most convenient place to park. (Summer parking rates: £4.90 per day. Please note the machine does not give change)

Then on FOOT (out of the car park)

Follow the footpath towards the National Marine Aquarium (left out of the car park)

Once round to the south side of the building the sea should be to your left and the building on your right.

Follow the path (West) towards the National Marine Aquarium entrance. In front of the entrance is a public square.

The LHC Office is the single-storey building on the right hand side of this square. The main entrance is located behind the diving bell/ drill head monument, next to Sands Coffee Shop.
